News Release Drug Bust

January 29, 2010 – On Friday afternoon, January 22, 2010, Hobbs Police executed a search warrant at a residence located at 1209 N. Grayson.

During the search of the residence, officers located approximately 30.5 grams of crystal methamphetamine, along with digital scales, narcotics packing materials, drug paraphernalia and cash. Officers arrested 42 year old Ruby Zabala for First Degree Trafficking of a Controlled Substance (Methamphetamine). Zabala was arrested and charged in 2006 with Second Degree Trafficking of a Controlled Substance (Methamphetamine). She is being held on a $200,000.00 bond.

The search warrant and arrest were the result of an investigation by the Hobbs Police Department Community Action Team.
